

CA-1460

GERMAN DAIRY - 1869-1877 - 422 York Road, Towson. Three-bay, two-story, brick Victorian-Italianate store-dwelling with flat roof and plain cornice on commercial part. Apparently the "Herald Office" shown in 1877 atlas when S. Collings was owner, as he was in 1898 atlas. Collings had purchased lot in 1869. Edward E. German bought house in 1906 and used it as his Hampton Farms dairy retail outlet, continuing into 1950s. This was later a barber shop and c. 1977 became a frozen yogurt shop called the California. Measurements in 1918 tax ledger were 16 x 30. There is a frame and clapboard back building residence portion with a gable roof. Frame processing plant survived in yard, on alley until a fire of Oct. 17, 1983. Owner: Charles E. Brooks.